Liquidity Provider - An institution often a bank or broker.

Market Maker - In general financial terms, a market maker is an entity that continuously quotes buy and sell prices for an asset, providing liquidity.

In the strong data-start=20326&data-end=20344&context=broker context, Market Maker usually refers to a strong data-start=20381&data-end=20429&broker that operates a dealing desk B-Book and fills client trades internally.

The broker effectively makes the market for you by offering fixed spreads and ensuring orders are filled even if external liquidity is
